Timaru Botanic Gardens Code Breaker

A monkey, emu and deer once lived in the Botanic Gardens.
Each clue can be answered with a number.
Match each answer to a letter to reveal that monkey's name.

- 1 The Dawn Redwood, in the Chinese garden, has a scientific name. How many letters make up the first word in that name?
- 2 A terraced staircase leads to a Queen's 50yr commemoration feature. How many large urns flank these stairs?
- 3 Swing on down to a fun place for kids. How many vertical red painted poles are there?
- 4 A semi-circle chair gives views to the duck feeding platform. How many flat stone squares make up the seat of this chair?
- 5 The Anderson Rose Garden is a study in symmetry. How many circles of hedges radiate out from the central fountain?
- 6 "Checkers" out a nice table to relax in the therapeutic garden. How many red squares touch the edge of the square "board"?
- 7 A structure embedded with round stones hangs out in a cool place for ferns. How many vertical wooden posts are on the same side of this structure to the entrance?
